Reports

Budget: Various items were reviewed and discussed. Dottie observed that the budget is on track so far.

Staff & Director Report: Various points were discussed:

- The ongoing parking problem and solutions, including people who use the parking lot for long term parking
- The poor turnout for summer adult/senior programming, and possibly moving these programs to a different time of year
- The librarians grace under pressure during the eclipse viewing event
- The YA room renovation (see old business)

Foundation Report: Dottie reported that the Foundation is still looking for members and book sale room volunteers, and that the book sale room is being reorganized to hopefully help sales.

There will be a special display of WWII materials during the Veteran's Day holiday as the Foundation has been given a large collection of items.

The Foundation has approved costs associated with tables and photo project discussed in the August meeting.

Old Business

Penny Pillsbury Fund: Photos are being scanned and will be framed for library display, hopefully by the end of the year.

The renovations to the YA room will take place in December. The funding has been approved, and the changes will improve the room and make it much more usable.

The budget group has been set, and Wendy will contact them when a meeting date has been set.

The tables have all been refinished and are back at home in the library.

New Business

There was no new business discussed.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:55pm, Sheila motioned, Dottie seconded, trustees agreed.

Respectfully submitted by: Penny Egan
